

Year 5

|                                 |                     |  |                         |                  |  |
|---------------------------------|---------------------|--|-------------------------|------------------|--|
| Autumn 1                        | Autumn 2            | Spring 1                                 | Spring 2                | Summer 1         | Summer 2                                     |
| Earth, Space & Forces (Science) | Egyptians (History) | Living things & their Habitats (Science) | Rainforests (Geography) | Greeks (History) | Animals including Humans & Puberty (Science) |
| Climate Change (Geography)      |                     |  |                         |                  |  |

Reading

|  |   |  |   |   |   |
|--|---|--|---|---|---|
| VarmintsHelen Ward  | Secrets of a Sun KingEmma Carroll  | Storm breakerAnthony Horowitz  | ExplorerKatherine Rundell  | Mystery and Mayhem  | Way home  |
|--|---|--|---|---|---|

|   |   |   |  |   |   |
|---|---|---|--|---|---|
| P- To informA- Adults or children with an interest in scienceSkills- Accurate scientific vocabularyExpanded noun phrasesAdaptations to information dependent on audience (e.g. young reader could need brackets, glossary, simile for comparison- "that's the same as 200 years on Earth!")Use of imperatives and adverbials for the instruction aspect.Colons to introduce a listOutcomes- Non-chronological report incorporating instructions. How to order the planets. The parts of the solar system have been mixed up.P- To entertainA- PeersSkills- Maintain consistent tense and person of choice  | P- To entertainA- PeersSkills- Cohesive paragraphs - use of fronted adverbials and subordinate clauses that make meaningful links between paragraphs.Dialogue (punctuation and layout) that advances the action and develops charactersCreate atmospheric settings through use of description including figurative languageOutcomes- Narrative (adventure) P- To informA- AdultsSkills- Punctuation for direct speech (extension- reported speech) for quotations.Appropriate structure- introduction followed by chronologically organised informationMaintain consistent past tense   | P- Entertain/informA- Alex/MI5 (Jones and Blunt)Skills- Carefully chosen, precise verbsDescriptive language adjectivesEvents in chronological orderMaintain tensesSubject specific vocabularyUse of relative clauses (punctuation for parenthesis)Outcomes- Diary entries recording Alex's feelings (Royal &amp; General and Army training) and findings from his experiences at Sayle Enterprises. P- To Inform/persuadeA- The KingSkills- Distinguish between features of formal and informal writing.Avoid exclamations, contractions, figures of speechInclude formal sentences structures (use of subordination and embedded   | P- To entertain/informA- Adults and children interested in adventureSkills- Verb choice for effectIntroduce modal verbs- What should we do? What will happen? What could happen?Appropriate description included- adjectives, verbs, prepositions to create a clear image of the setting and conditions.Consistent use of first person and (mostly past) tenseGDS- manage shifts in tense e.g. shifting from past to present or past-future. Maintaining informal tone.Use of topic specific references appropriate to the context.Outcomes- Journal. Write in role as one of the explorers featured in the book e.g. the submarine story.NB: Use the opening from Wolf Brother by Michelle Paver, which is excellent for building tension. You can   | P- Inform (in role as Hermes)A-ZeusSkills- Use of pronouns and noun phrases to avoid repetition and aid cohesionRelative clauses use brackets, dashes and commas for parenthesis use commas between clauses to clarify meaning (or avoid ambiguity)Adverbials for timeConjunctions to express cause and effectOutcomes- Recount/eye witness statement about what happened to Percy as he was trying to escape from the Minotaur, including the fight and him defeating the beast. P- InformA- Camp Half-bloodSkills- Direct and reported speech. Maintain selected level of formality throughout.  | P- To entertainA- Year 6/7Skills- use brackets, dashes and commas for parenthesisSelect the appropriate tense and maintain it for as long as is appropriate (may used past, present and future)Use of exclamation and rhetorical questionPrecise vocabulary choice to convey atmosphere and emotion (adjective, verb, adverb)Use of figurative language for imagery linked to setting and physical feelingsOutcomes- A journal in role as Francis P- To entertainA- Year 6/7Skills- use ellipsisCreate atmosphere through descriptive vocabulary including figurative languageRhetorical questions   |
|---|---|---|--|---|---|

|   |  |  |   |  |  |
|---|--|--|---|--|--|
| Use of adverbials correctly punctuated with commas Use of relative clauses (likely at the end of sentence) using relative pronouns which, who, that Vocab to describe characters, setting and atmosphere Outcomes- Narrative- write the part of the story where Jamie discovers the observatory (first or third person) | Adverbials for place and time punctuated with comma Causal conjunctions to explain and link events: as a result... because of this... therefore... Outcomes- News report- Write a news report about an event from the text NB- Use the chariot accident (pg. 25-26) in the book to write a WAGOLL for the children to investigate and evaluate | relative clauses) and precise description of the highwayman Language and structures typical of persuasion (repetition, rhetorical questions) Outcomes- Letter- Write a letter to the king, informing of the presence of a highwayman in the local area. Letter of complaint with element of persuade- something must be done about this criminal! | screenshot this from the Amazon "look inside" feature. P- To inform A- Years 3 and 4 Skills- Explore and apply a wide range of presentation devices to organise the parts of the text and support the delivery of information. Use of modal verbs Descriptive language appropriate to the context and purpose. Ensure it is appropriate for the pupil's selected audience age range e.g. use of brackets or glossary to explain definitions of topic specific vocabulary. Outcomes- Survival guide- Write a guide to surviving in extreme conditions and circumstances in role as an explorer. How will you need to adapt your text for a younger (Y3/4) reader so that they will understand the information? | Subordinate clauses and adverbials for time and cause punctuated with commas Expanded noun phrases Outcomes- A news report about the newest addition to Camp Half-blood | Experiment with sentence length for effect including short sentences and single sentence paragraphs Plan and organise writing to build suspense- withholding information, twist, big reveal, cliffhanger Outcomes- A narrative based on Francis that builds tension and creates suspense (use of Alma for apprentice write?) |
|---|--|--|---|--|--|